Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, O., June 7.-Columbus found Williams easy in the first two innings to-day and won the game right off the reel, although the visitors also hit McMackin very hard and were always dan-Williams allowed three clean doubles in the first inning, which, with a pass and O'Brien's hit, yielded four runs. mixed with a couple of singles and followed by Evans's long fly, permitted the home team to get two more runners over the plate, which, as it turned out, was enough to win. The last three senatorial tallies by the locals were the result of consecutive hitting in three different innings. The visitors, led by O'Brien, gave an exhibition of clean, hard hitting throughout the game. Everybody but Hogriever, Kinm and Heydon took a crack at McMackin's slow curves. The Indianapolis shortstop | terday. led with the stick, securing two singles, a double and a three-bagger out of four times up. He probably would have got another in the ninth if he had not been put out of the game, with Heydon, for too strenuous kicking on a decision by Ebright in the last half of the eighth. Coulter was on third and Captain Fox on first, with one man PURDUE WINS THE MEET out, when Heydon hit a sharp grounder to Evans. The second baseman threw to Nattress, forcing Fox, and the double play was completed at first, the umpfre calling DEFEATS THE OTHER COLLEGE ATH-Heydon out on a close decision. O'Brien, who was coaching, and Heydon questioned the judgment so vigorously that both were retired to the bench, Woodruff going behind the bat, Kuhns to short and Sutthoff to left. Woodruff, who batted in O'Brien's piace in the ninth, cracked out a clean hit. Williams and Kuhns both secured home runs, the former a scratch that bounded over the left-field fence, the latter a clean drive to the clubhouse in deep center. Only McMackin's coolness and control and the perfect support given him by his field kept the visitors from tying the score on several slip-up of any kind, and every one of their runs was earned. Nattress's work at shortstop was the leading fielding feature of the game, and O'Brien, barring his one error in the first, played fine ball. Bailey and Kel-

City and County Game.

The baseball game between the city and county officials yesterday afternoon was interrupted by rain, the score standing 6 to 6. Contrary to expectation, the game disclosed some real ball playing. Features of the game were City Attorney Joss's extra suit, which he carried to the ground in a valise, and Market Master Shufelton's home run, on which he made only two bases. The city fellows played an extra half inning and scored a run, from which they deduct that they would have won had the game been finished. The result was not satisfactory, and it is likely another game will be arranged.

L. A. W. PROGRAMME.

Twenty-Third Annual Meeting at Atlantic City in July.

Some local members of the L. A. W. are interested in the programme for the twenty-third annual meet of the League of American Wheelmen, to be held at Atlantic City next month, July 16, 17, 18 and 19. Having the advantage of a seashore location the committee in charge has found that its task is much easier than would have been the case at an inland city, as was the case in Philadelphia in 1897. A trip to the shore is, in itself, an inducement that will perhaps be most appreciated by those at present planning to combine the meet with their summer vacation. Headquarters will be secured near the beach as near the center of Atlantic City as possible. Here will take place the regissacrifice hit and Burkett's long drive scored the winning run for St. Louis in the ninth broke his leg recently in sliding to base, but is recovering rapidly, and hopes to be in the game located the bureau of information where can be obtained all the details of the meet,
